

RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION CHECKLIST

SEND A LETTER

Write a letter to your local School Board explaining that you are exempt from compulsory attendance due to religious beliefs. Send via certified mail before Aug 15 (or whenever you decide to start).

PROVIDE EVIDENCE (IF REQUESTED)

If requested, provide documentation of your beliefs. The School Board may request reference letters, or to speak with you at a meeting. If their request seems excessive, join HSLDA for legal advice!

RECEIVE APPROVAL

After supporting documentation has been sent, you should receive a letter acknowledging "approval" of your Religious Exemption. Keep this letter forever!

HOMESCHOOL!

The School Board has the right to periodically verify that your beliefs have not changed. Other than that, there is no need to provide additional documentation for this child...ever!